Fiscal arrangements in Brazil severely constrain the federal government's ability to fulfill its mandate as a national government. Municipal governments, meanwhile, have more revenues than they need, encouraging fiscal mismanagement. Reform is urgently needed to counteract Brazil's fiscal imbalance.

The Policy, Research, and External Affairs Complex distributes PRE Working Papers to disseminate the findings of work in progress and to encourage the exchange of ideas among Bank staff and all others interested in development issues. These papers carry the names of the authors, reflect only their views, and should be used and cited accordingly. The findings, interpretations, and conclusions are the authors' own. They should not be attributed to the World Bank, its Board of Directors, its management, or any of its member countries.
