RESEARCH ETHICS
Here are some guidelines to follow when you interview people. It is important to follow these guidelines so that the participant's identity and information are protected.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The study must be described.
Interviewees must be told why they are being interviewed and what questions they will be asked. Let everyone know that they can ask questions at any time, and that they can phone your instructor, Dr. _____ on phone: _____ if they have any concerns. You should provide each interviewee with a copy of the interview sheet.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• People must agree to be interviewed.
Let participants know that their participation is entirely voluntary. "Voluntary" means that people can refuse to be interviewed and that they can change their mind at any time (in this case, shred the data immediately). If people do agree to be interviewed, make sure that you check the "agree" box on the interview sheet.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Confidentiality must be protected.
Do not record any identifying information, such as names, addresses, social security numbers, or driver's license numbers. Do not identify anyone in your research report. Shred all interview data after you have finished the report.
